A CAROUSEL ...

With every goal, achievement, or challenge, a new adventure begins. These past four years spent at Manchester have turned out to be a Great Adventure for each one of us.

Our challenge first began the minute we walked into school. The long, luminous halls seemed an endless tunnel as we scurried to find our next class. Until we learned our way around the school, we shuffled in a maze frequently asking an upperclassman for directions. Also, included in this adventure we met many new faces and acquired new friends.

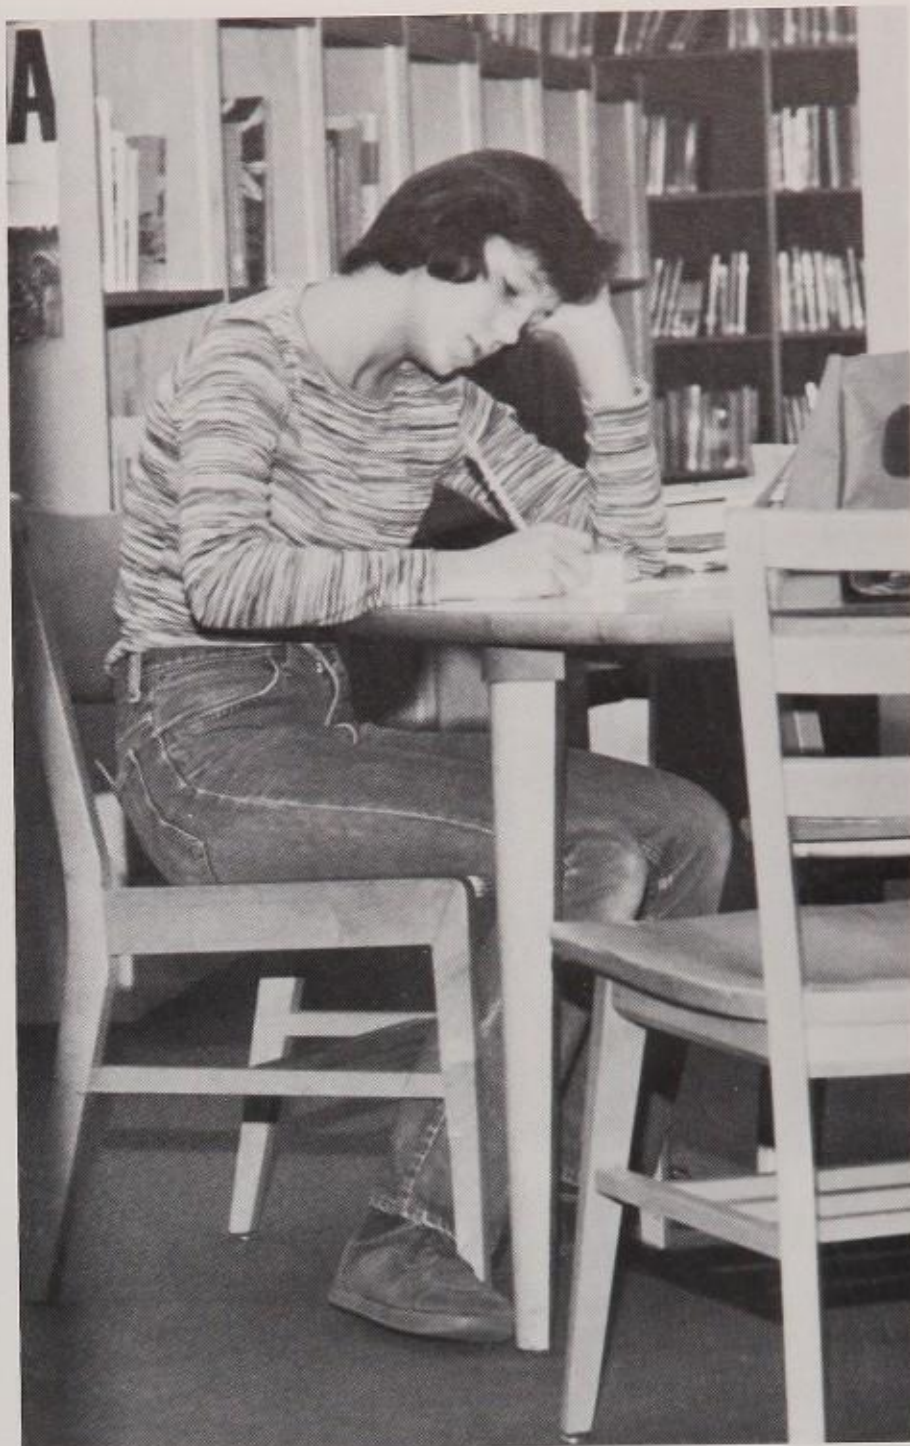

Our next and most demanding adventure was our schoolwork. Learning was never so difficult and we realized that we would have to apply ourselves a great deal more in order to do well. What seemed even harder was adjusting to the piles and piles of homework each night. Many of us feared that all of this work would get in the way of our next adventure — extracurricular activities.

Football, baseball, volleyball, basketball, and soccer all require intense training and many, many practice hours. A challenge such as this is a great adventure in itself. You must work very hard to become the best and this not only applies to the athletes but also to the members of the band, cheerleading squad, majorettes, color guard etc.

By facing these obstacles we have paved the way for future adventures. Our shared journey has brought us closer and throughout our lives we will never forget the friendly, caring people who made Our Great Adventure a rich, fun filled experience.

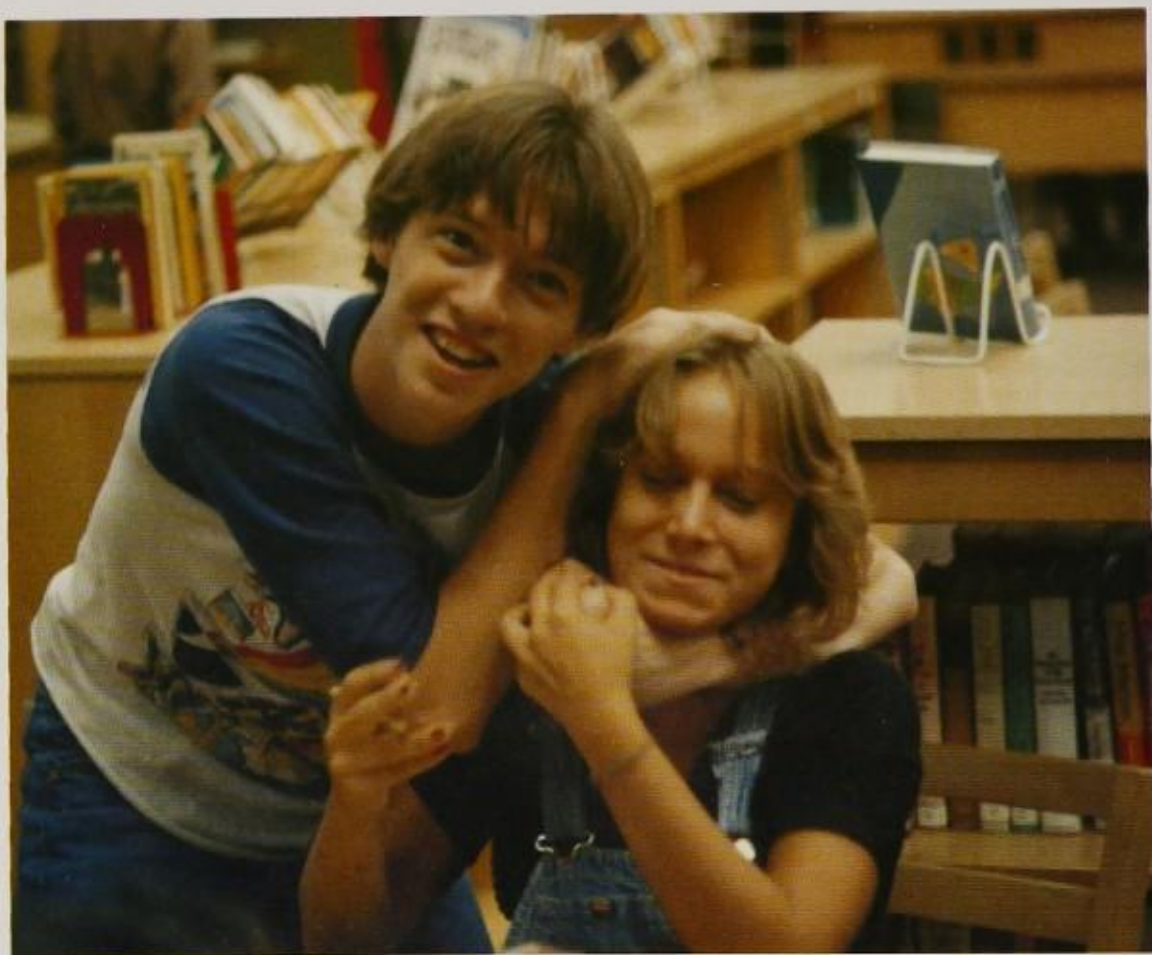

Go for it Seniors!!

This year's senior class is big on togetherness. We seldom do things without the gang. It's all for one, and one for all!

Our Dedication to Mr. Eugene Czerniecki

The class of '81 dedicates its yearbook to Mr. Eugene Czerniecki; art teacher, friend, and advisor to many who have ventured the premises of Manchester Regional High School over the past 17 years.

Mr. Czerniecki served the school through a variety of efforts. He was the chairperson of the Fine Arts Department, yearbook advisor for three years, and made significant contributions to curriculum development. He designed and constructed the verdant courtyard we enjoy. We thank him for displaying art works throughout the building.

Mr. Czerniecki is an artist expressing his talents through several media. Sculpture and woodwork, in addition to paints, earned him entrance to the 1970 and 1974 Art Show at the State Museum in Trenton. His four children, Brian, Susan, David and Jeanna and his wife Jean enjoy the fine pieces of furniture Mr. Czerniecki created for their home in Clifton. He speaks of his art as "sculpture . . . created with the intent of reflecting society yet representing 20th century man's humanism . . ."

Mr. Czerniecki, thank you for caring.

A Thought for the Day

It must be an interesting book.

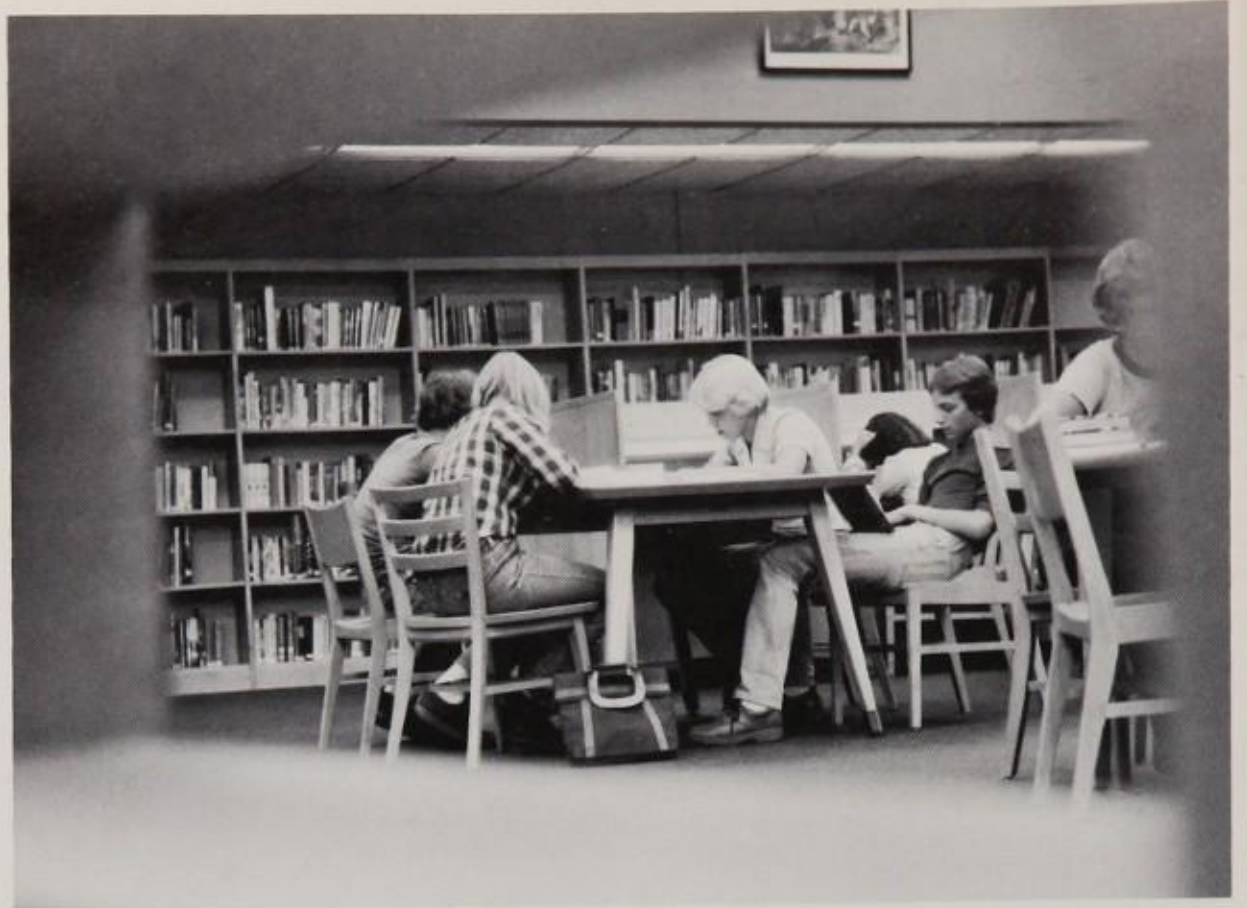

The football season at Manchester is a great event every year. The preceding Friday is a big day for all those involved in making it a winning season.

The Pep Rally this year was a great success. The students showed much support for the football team. They, like the football players, are hoping for a victorious game the next day.

AROUND THE SCHOOL

Thanks for the good news . . .

Mrs. Falco takes a moment to assist Jim Manzella with his studies.

FACULTY

A Journey

We have not only gained a Superintendent here at Manchester but also a caring, hardworking friend.

William Galese, formerly the Assistant Principal at Morris Hills High School, has a unique interest in children which is reflected in his work.

Besides coaching football for a number of years, Mr. Galese served for ten years as the director of a summer camp for 250 handicapped children. He also taught at Morris Hills High School, Memorial High School, and Eastside High School. Throughout his career he earned the respect of students and teachers alike. When asked what his plans for the future of Manchester are, Mr. Galese confidently replied, "I'd like to erase any negative feelings about Manchester and also see students super involved in activities. There should be pride in our school. I believe in structure, and I believe in young people."

The class of 1981 welcomes Mr. Galese and wishes him good luck in all his future plans for Manchester. He'll have the full support of faculty and students and we're all glad he is here.

Administration at MRHS

1. Mr. Robert Spreen, Principal
2. Mr. Richard Grandey, Vice-Principal
3. Mr. Joseph Heywang, Director of Pupil Personnel Services.

As our class of '81 journeyed through the maze of knowledge, mysteries, and wonders at Manchester Regional High School, our steady course was maintained by Mr. Spreen, Mr. Grandey, and Mr. Heywang. They provided a steady course which gave direction and helped to arrive at our mutual destination of mental and spiritual growth. No easy task, theirs. There may have been countless occasions when we, as students and embryonic adults, questioned decisions or judgements handed down. Yet, the really difficult job lay in the decision-making. No easy task, theirs.

The class of '81 expresses its gratitude to the "Big Three" for all their wisdom and caring when it counted.

Board of Education members work hard and long during work sessions, once a month. They also schedule regularly a monthly meeting during which policy-making and significant decisions must be rendered concerning the well-being of Manchester Regional High School and its student body. Theirs is the serious business of matters of safety, finance, use of school facilities, personnel, and the superintending of the buildings and grounds. When walls are painted, floors refurbished, glass replaced, curriculum innovations implemented, the members of the Board of Education, give careful and sound input to a decision after much investigation and deliberation. These men and women give of their time unselfishly and serve as the vanguard of the three communities, Haledon, North Haledon, and Prospect Park.

Cafeteria Staff

Hungry high school students rush to the cafeteria during 4th, 5th, and 6th periods to partake of a nourishing and varied menu. Five days each week, Monday through Friday, the ladies of the cafeteria staff prepare and serve lunch to almost the entire student body. Faculty members, too, enjoy lunch on school days in their dining room just off the cafeteria; and, thanks to the staff pictured to the right, it is hearty and tasty.

Students and teachers participated in this outdoor adventure of physical prowess last May. For more than 100 days each school year teachers and students work together; but, on this day, Field Day, teachers and students play together. They race, hurdle, and tug-o-war on the field in friendly competition.

Concert Choir State Choice

Talk about adventures! Our Concert Choir gave two benefit performances for New Jersey's senior citizens, disabled veterans, the blind, and for the State's school children. The free concerts are sponsored by the Garden State Cultural Center Fund. The three musical groups (Teaneck, Verona, and ours) the finest, by vote, in the State of New Jersey, participated in the 1980 High School Music Festival held by the Arts Center. The Choir was chosen from a large number of choral groups that submitted tapes to the co-sponsoring New Jersey Music Educators Association. The members of the choir and Director, Mr. James Bender, know the thrill of being chosen best in the state. Their performance earned them a standing ovation. THREE CHEERS, MR. BENDER!

SENIORS

Dear Senior Class —

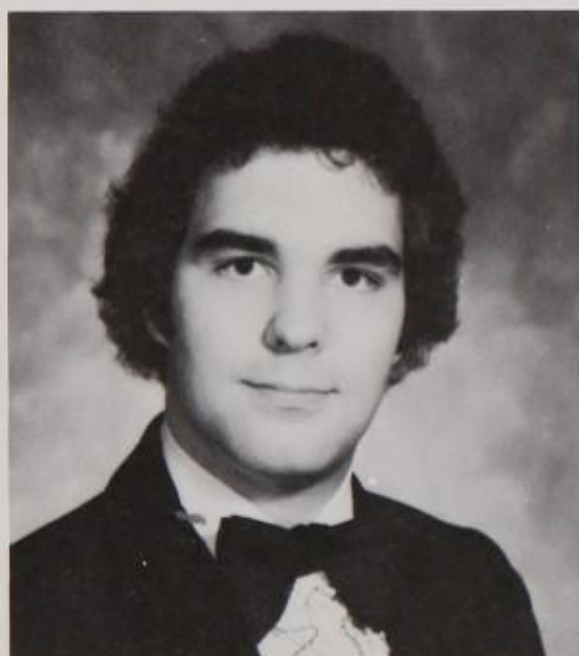

I guess you would call us career advisors. As you, our second senior class graduates, we look back at the good times we've had being a part of this group of students — the first class meeting in September of 1977 . . . we asked each other what did we get ourselves into? . . . the fun and craziness of the Dating Game . . . how you came through in the magazine drive . . . the last minute search for a band and then the beautiful evening we had at the Christmas Dance. It's been a rewarding and pleasurable experience and we want you to know that we'll always remember you.

Nancy Schuring
and Jake Faasse

Since being your class President Junior and Senior years, I felt it necessary to convey my undying gratitude to all of my fellow classmates who supported the student cause. We will soon embark on our own arduous careers to benefit ourselves and our country. I would like to thank everyone connected with Manchester Regional High School for making my stay here a pleasant one. Thank you for all the good times.

In their long journey through the halls of learning, these 6 sets of twins travelled side by side! Still travelling, they now approach the close of a 4 year passage through Manchester. The grand finale leads the twins to the special event of graduation. They don't know whether or not their paths may cross again after leaving high school, but it's been fun while they've been together for almost 12 years. Of classes. This great group are Sue and Sandy DeYoung, Mike and Mark Debiak, Sharon and Sue Stansfield, Ron and Bob Zeitlinger, Ann and Maria Zuras, and Dean and Vickie Peshkopia. .

Teamwork, that's what it takes — Teamwork — to produce a winner. The Falcon team works doggedly in tandem to give the fans a worthy contest.

"I Wanna Be A Football Here To Get Along With The Beautiful Girls..." With a 2-7 close of the season, the team hopes very much that next year they have better luck with the injury factor. At no time did they compete with all players in top notch condition. Injuries were extensive and cost the Falcons the season. In spite of this, they beat Lodi, 12-7; Midland Park, 21-13; and played a proud game against Glen Rock losing 27-24.

Junior Varsity Football

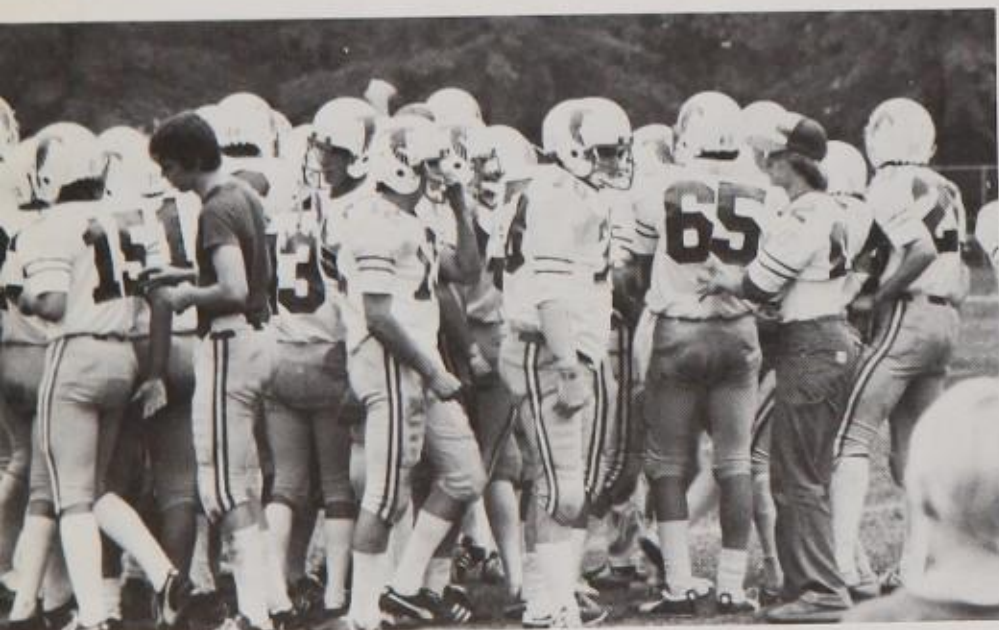

The J.V. team pushed and shoved their way through the season but to no avail. Try as they might, it was not possible to come away with a single win. The record reads 0 and 8. But their spirits are undaunted. Our intrepid "flock" leave us with the resounding cry of "Wait until next year."

The freshman team finished with a 2-7 season. In three more years they will move up to first place! FLY FALCONS!

Coaches Phil McGarry and Joe O'Neill assemble their "up and coming." Since practice makes perfect, the coaches will see to it that the team will do its share of practicing and perfecting to produce a future Varsity nemesis.

Varsity

Every cake needs its "frosting" to add excitement, interest, and enthusiasm to the moment. So too, the Fighting Falcons. Their cheerleaders praise the plays and encourage the fans to appreciate the strategy and strength so vital to victory. As the team puts in time in order to out-maneuver the opponent, the cheerleaders workout faithfully to orchestrate cheers and choreography to charm and arouse supporting enthusiasts among the stands. Beauty, brash, and brains — a tough combination of elements to ignore.

Let's have a cheer for the Rousers of RAH!

J.V. Cheerleaders

This year's J.V. cheerleading squad consists of a peppy group of twelve and advisor, Miss Lori Dow. Lori VanHook and Regina Ciarfella are the captain and co-captain. Included in the group are Patrina Marino, Lynne Zimmer, Laurie Johnson, Kim Kalutik, Kim Baldo, Debbie VanBeekum, Suzanne Esposito, Michelle Rizzi, Gina Debiak, and Maxine Maltese. All work very hard during the football and basketball seasons.

1st Row: Debbie VanBeekum, Lori Van Hook, Regina Ciarfella, Laurie Johnson. 2nd Row: Lynn Zimmer, Maxine Maltese, Gina Debiak, Kim Baldo. 3rd Row: Sue Esposito, Patrina Marino, Miss Laurie Dow, Michelle Rizzi, Kim Kalutik.

The girls pep up the team as well as they entertain the fans.

The Hoop

The hoop decorates the locker room on Saturday morning.

The cheerleaders keep the football players "jumping through hoops" . . . The hoop ceremony is a great beginning for the team. Excitement builds in the bleachers as the fans await the dramatic entrance of each player. A natural showcase for each member of the squad. A new hoop is carefully planned and artistically carried out for the start of each new game, thanks to the never-flagging support of the cheerleaders.

Cara McPartland readying the hoop for the critical Thanksgiving Day game.

And another one bites the dust . . .

The cheerleaders carry the hoop onto the field.

Thanksgiving Day Game

The Varsity Cheerleaders with the hoop Thursday morning.

The Thanksgiving Day game at every high school is significant. It marks the end of a football season. The Falcons played this game to win, hoping to close with a victory. It does not occur. Hawthorne descended the field, a powerful adversary. The Falcons are in the throes of nursing serious injuries throughout key players. The finale is a loss of 28-6.

The Falcon defense tackles a Hawthorne player.

Marching Band

The Manchester Regional H.S. Band.

What better way to undertake a journey than to travel with a marching band? Mr. Steve Bender and Warren V. discuss the plans for this day's review. In full uniform of brilliant red and stark white, the members of the marching band tote their instruments, assume cadence, and lead the way. Mr. Bender rehearses with his large group long and often in order to provide the "tunes" which make a lively backdrop for Manchester students and fans. The drums roll, the horns harmonize, and the thrill of a marching band summons the attention of all! "... and away we go!" "Music, the universal language of the world."

Flag Squad

The Flag Squad is another unit of the marching band. While the band plays, the girls twirl flags to a well-planned routine. The Flag Squad performs during pre-game and half-time at the football games. The girls also march in parades and the Herald News Band Festival. At this time, we would like to express our gratitude to the entire squad for their cooperation during this past season. We will miss all of you and the fun we had together. Good Luck in the future.

Love,

Color Guard

The colorguard has worked hard through the football season. Straight and unyielding as colorguard should be, the girls stand tall and march erect amid the twirling of their guns. We thank the squad for their colorful exhibition during the fall season, especially during the Thanksgiving Day Game. Captain, Tammy Sinnott 1st. Lt. Nancy Bascietto, 2nd. Lt. The majorettes perform decorously at the games regardless of the weather. During the Thanksgiving Day game the temperature dropped to near freezing. The girls muster their school spirit and march in spite of it. They execute a dance routine with flaming batons adding color and excitement to the event. No matter the outcome of a game, the halftime performances entertain the spectators; the majorettes provide a good show to the accompaniment of the marching band.

Varsity

This year's Varsity Basketball team had one of its most successful seasons ever. The team, coached by Mr. Jim Kane, boasts an 18-5 record. The Falcons were this year's winner of the Haledon Rotary Holiday Classic. One of the highlights of the season was the team's 11-game winning streak. Seniors Bob Breeman and Jerry Hill, along with junior Tom Bunting, were selected as First Team All League players. Senior Ron Beattie received honorable mention. The Falcons were also BPSL league co-champions.

J.V. Basketball

Coach, Mr. Lou Gatto, and the J.V. basketball team close this year with an esteemed record of 9-10. The boys never lose sight of the competition and face each opposing team with confidence and enthusiasm. They play each game to win. As each player makes his way through his four years at Manchester, he resolves to assume the responsibilities of an athlete. J.V. Team: Warren Ververs, Brian Vanas, John Cleary, Glen Manno, Tom Zeitlinger, Scott Stansfield, Ed Gras, Leo Kaytes, Frank DeFerdinando, Vic DeAngelo, Scott Havlin, John Adair, Frank Saya, Junior, Warren Ververs, chalks up the last game of the season with a record-tying of 32 points earned in a single game.

Girls Varsity Basketball

Coach Frank Libert has good things to say about the girls' varsity basketball team. They work hard to conclude with a 8-13 season. Each girl assumes her responsibility and meets practice sessions. What they practice, they put into play. A good look at the season reveals achievement. Carol Krupa attained first team, All League; Geri Saya, honorable mention.

Fencing

Interest in an old art of self-defense is revived through the enthusiastic coaching of Mr. Moore. He believes in fencing with flair and finesse. Fancy footwork and split-second timing result in graceful moves of beauty. Beware, Bareshnykov! The team mates entertain and amaze us. The intricate headgear and the protective breast plates impart a futuristic appearance. Such an old art sweeps with ease into the space age. The fencing team enjoyed a 10-1 season. John McLaughlin won third place in the High School Sabre Tournament and Ed Petkus, third in District Foil. The team is third place this season in all competition.

The Varsity Wrestling team saw a promising season fall to injuries and non-participation. Junior Mike Villalba broke his nose, senior Bob Jenkins badly sprained an ankle, and junior Ken Perry dislocated an elbow. However, due to fine individual performances by Mike Starkey, Bob Smith, Mike Andl, and Dan DeBlock, the Falcons struggled to a 3-9-1 season mark with exciting wins over Don Bosco Prep, Waldwick, and Midland Park, and a tie with Glen Rock. Graduating only four seniors insures the Falcons of good things for next year.

Team Honors: At 101 lbs. sophomore Mike Starkey posted a fine 15-7 record including third place finishes in the Passaic County and District Tournaments. Mike was second in the Mahwah Christmas Tournament and second team all-league.

Senior Bob Smith was 17-6 as a second year team captain. He finished third in the Passaic County Tournament and second place in the Mahwah Christmas Tournament. He was first team all-league and led the team with 11 pins.

At 129 lbs. junior Dan DeBlock had a truly impressive year. With a 22-2 record he was most valuable wrestler on the team and posted the most team points. He was most valuable wrestler in the Mahwah Christmas Tourney where he posted first place with 4 pins. He was undefeated in dual meets, named first team all-league, third in the District tourney, and third in the Passaic County Tournament.

Student Council

The student council is comprised of representatives from each class, nine through twelve. The peer-group leaders receive input from their class members. Their goal is to govern a student body, set examples, raise funds, submit suggestions relative to curriculum, extra-curricular activities — in short — total school involvement for the total school. It is not unusual for the student council officers to interact with administration concerning school activities. The council moves in a positive direction under the guidance of its advisors, Mr. Keith Post. At mid-year, Mr. Post relinquished his role. Mrs. Jean Brown is completing this year with the group. Well Done

This symbol indicates that the bearer holds a distinguished academic record while in high school. A student earns the emblem after demonstrating outstanding qualities of leadership among his peers. Many high school students may wish to be a part of the group. Members of the faculty evaluate the entire school record in terms of contributions to the school, the student body, and academics. If all is well, a student learns that he is a National Honor Society member. The "trophy" is awarded at an impressive ceremony. The candles burning, the Reverend present, Mr. Dattolo's message, Mr. Spreen's presentation, all are witness to well earned recognition of hard work and serious appraisals of their role while in high school.

Work, work, work, work. Our desk never looked neater. This is where this great book began.

Hi. We, the Yearbook Staff of the 1981 Aurion, would like to congratulate ourselves. While everyone else was out working, playing, etc., we were going crazy trying to put a good (excuse me, a great) book together. I know it is hard to please everyone because each of you has your own particular likes and dislikes. However, we all have one thing in common — the desire to to something and be proud of it. We at the Yearbook Staff wish to extend our thanks to those who aided us in our achievement and to those who gave of their time without complaint. Best of Luck to the graduating class of 1981 — achieve and be proud of yourselves. Thank You.

During the fall of 1980, concerned students gathered to honor the late Eugene Czerniecki by weeding and gardening the marvelous courtyard in the center of the building, which was designed by him. The students, along with Miss Sandra Briguori, a close friend of Mr. Czerniecki, took time off from their busy class schedule to perform this task. The students were: David Schottanes, Jane Berry, Mary Dahab, Debbie Kishbaugh, and Donna Laurie, assisted by Miss Briguori, and others. Mr. Czerniecki died on November 5, 1980.

Mindy Kling, Ann VanHook, Tina Casale, Karen Kershbergen, Nella Valenti, Joanne Vancheri, and Marian Black proudly display their rings. They will journey just one more year and this ceremony marks the fact. The juniors approach the final days as high school students.

Tradition

The present junior class, the future class of 1982, currently stand at the threshold of the last leg of their journey as high school students at Manchester Regional High School. A legacy it leaves for future juniors is the ceremony they initiate for the distribution of class rings. A TRADITION in the making? The members of the junior class decorate a Christmas Tree with tiny stockings in which the rings are deposited. Each stocking bears the name of a junior and the stocking is presented to classmates by the class officers and supervised by Ms. Mongiardo and Mr. Grossi. It is a festive party which carries the somber overtones of the approaching close of an era, the juniors' high school career. With mixed emotions, they smile and shed a tear among the sweets to eat, rings being turned, and Christmas joy.

We thank the juniors for their innovation and await the next junior class to plan the pomp and ceremony for their celebration of the rings. Tina Casale, Joanne Vancheri, Marion Black, and Nella Valenti sewed the stockings and decorated them with the names of each junior. On Thursday, December 18, 1980, in the school cafeteria Ms. Ellen Pappas, Josten's representative, assists the girls in placing the appropriate ring in the designated stocking. Peter Sadowski summons his creative talents and — voila — he builds the tree on which the stockings dangle. Troy Baker, class president, and Dave Baram, vice-president, along with Mr. James Grossi and Ms. Diane Mongiardo do the honors in presenting each junior his ring. The music issues from stereo and the goodies enjoyed by all are brought to the party by the class members. This junior class creates a fine gala which will remain a fond memory for them and perhaps the roots of tradition for the next juniors to come.

Juniors receive a Christmas stocking which holds the treasured memento.

Concert Choir

All of us, young and old, each year look eagerly to the Christmas season. Somehow, Christmas music, lights, busy shops, and bustling crowds pass on to each of us the magic of the holiday.

The concert choir under the direction of Mr. Steve Bender is no exception. Just before the winter recess, the halls of Manchester resound with the practicing carols in preparation for the "live" Christmas Card presented to the student body by the choir. At this special time of the year, a very special effort is made in keeping with the sentiment of the season. Our students carefully dress and assume a serious role for the occasion. There are even slight cases of stage fright cropping up . . . "is my tie on straight?" "does my hair look alright?" "oh my God . . . I forgot the words!" With all of the building emotion, the concert is about to begin. Mr. Bender signals, the choir attends, and the beautiful carols of Christmas fill the air. Everyone in tune, and as if by magic, everyone remembers the music and the words.

Laura Dellaquilla and Michelle Dupre "make a joyful noise unto the Lord" at a festive Christmas Concert.

The Concert Choir perform for the Christmas audience. Ken Perry, Mike Ventrella, and Scott Matchett; focal, vocal figures amid a tranquil and melodic setting. It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas . . .

Concert Choir

Santa visits Mr. Bender; the band members made the delivery.

Sue Esposito, Wendy Audino, and Kim Baldo smile for the camera before tuning up.

Is everybody happy? The young men of the choir show signs of fatigue. Mr. Bender calls, "One more time!"

The sopranos reach for the high notes.

TO THE LEFT: Mindy Kling, Karen Rutkowski, Sheri Tomasello, Ivette Cortes, and Maria Tavares in harmony.

La Piñata

Things are not what they seem!
Mr. Alphonso Dattolo is not wearing the piñata as a Christmas hat!

Mr. Damiano Sclafani, advisor to the Spanish Club tells the story of the piñata to the members. The piñata is usually a very pretty animal made of paper and gaily decorated. Its center is hollow in order to be able to fill it with presents for children at Christmas time. This piñata is no exception! The students will hit the hanging piñata until it breaks open, releasing the great gifts which have been placed inside. As the gifts tumble to the floor, the students will try to catch one or two which invite them to do so.

BELOW: Miss Lori Dow, another member of the Foreign Language Department, tries her hand while blindfolded. If successful, Miss Dow earns for herself a Christmas surprise. It appears that this game is distantly related to the familiar "pin the tail on the donkey" game which children of America play at birthday parties.

A New Year

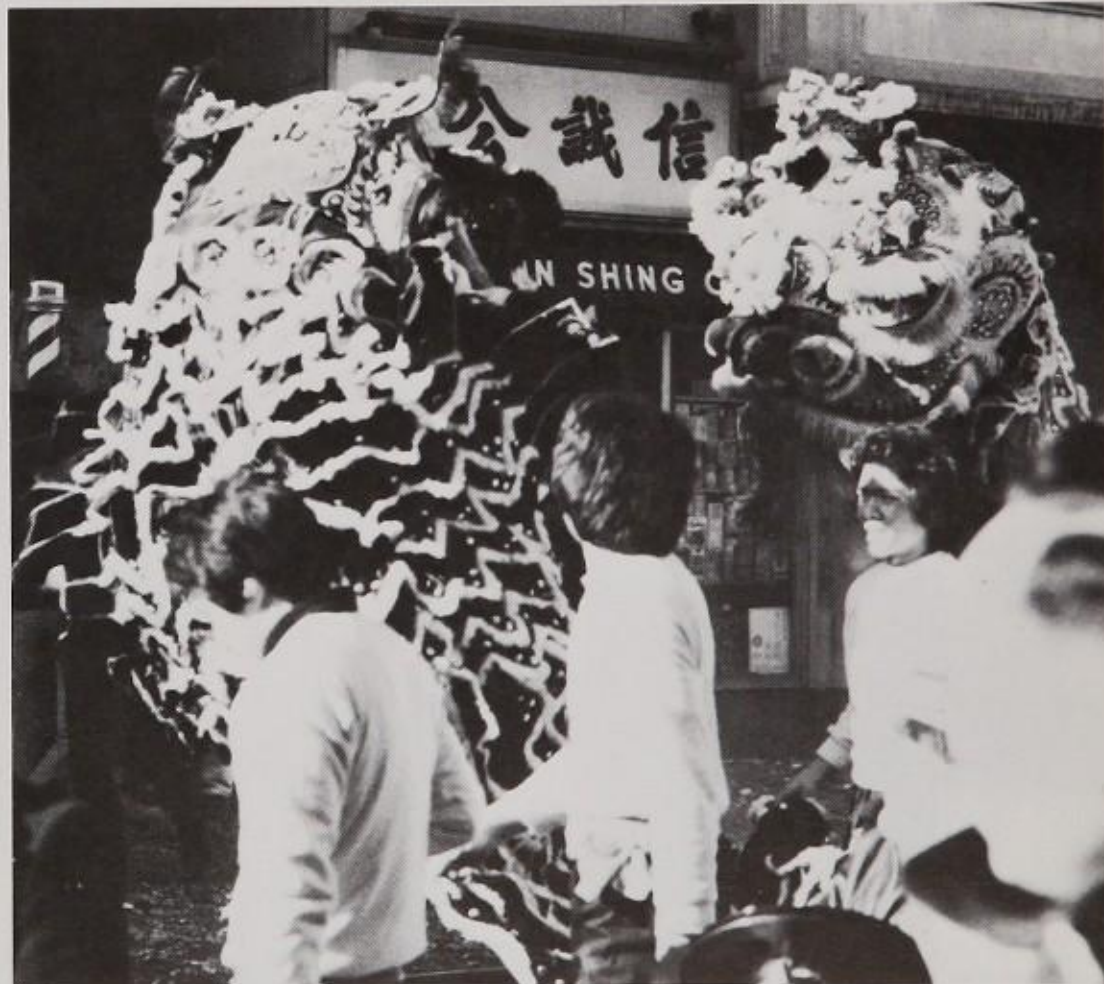

No, we did not visit China proper. This is New York City's Chinatown at Chinese New Year.

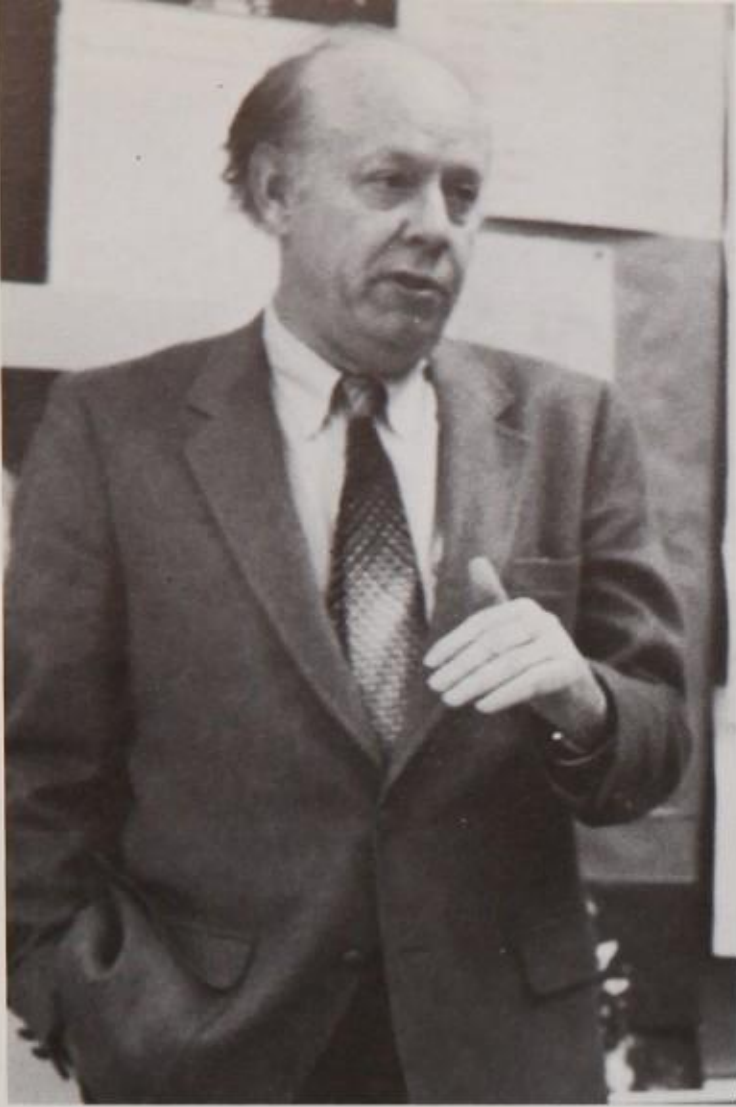

I'd hide if I looked like that, too!

With firecrackers and flares flashing, the street fills with a smoky haze. A fitting backdrop to celebrate the New Year on February 5, 1981. Mr. Robert Legg's classes, Religions and Man, trekked to the city to participate in the festivities. A shutterbug, Cara McPartland, snapped her way through the adventure. The fierce dragons wend their way through the narrow streets while colorful banners unfurl this cold, windy day. A large metal gong is struck as the celebrants weave and wind through Mott Street. The distinct aromas of roast duck, crisp greens, and chicken fill the air.

Such a different culture from the one we live with; and so perfectly preserved by our neighbors just across the Hudson River. The use of loud noises, fire, and the color red frighten away evil spirits. All old debts are met and the elders embark on the new year with a clean slate. The dragon, sometimes 100 feet in length, symbolizes goodness and strength.

Senator Frank X. Graves tells Mr. Robert Legg's History classes of pending legislation relative to gun laws, drinking age, and identification pictures to be placed on drivers' licenses.

Senator Frank X. Graves visits the History department at Manchester Regional High School. He addresses several classes concerning critical issues affecting New Jersey today. Senator Graves speaks of the severe water shortage and its impact today and for the future. 1980-81 experiences so little rainfall that reservoirs are nearly dry. As a result, the senator reminds us to be mindful of water conservation to avoid waste of a precious natural resource. The senator also speaks of the importance of young people keeping informed on issues and events in order to prepare for meaningful voting. He points out that young adults owe to their communities an obligation to participate responsibly in the affairs of their neighborhoods, and their country.

The Senator listening pensively to student opinion.

James Perrotta with guest, Mr. Frank Bohus, representative from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. Walter Reuter and Mr. Bohus.

Mr. Reuter, History Department; James Perrotta, and Mr. Frank Bohus.

The 34th Annual Voice of Democracy National Broadcast Script-writing Scholarship Program has a Passaic County winner from Manchester Regional High School this year. James Perrotta, current senior, submitted to the contest through the history department, his essay addressed to the theme, "My Commitment to My Country." On February 13, 1981, Jim learns that he is the winner and the recipient of an award in the amount of $150.00 in United States Bonds. Mr. Frank Bohus, in behalf of the V.F.W. visited Manchester to tell Jim the good news and make the presentation.

Eva Santoloci at Rickels.

Tracy Hart, a busy secretary.

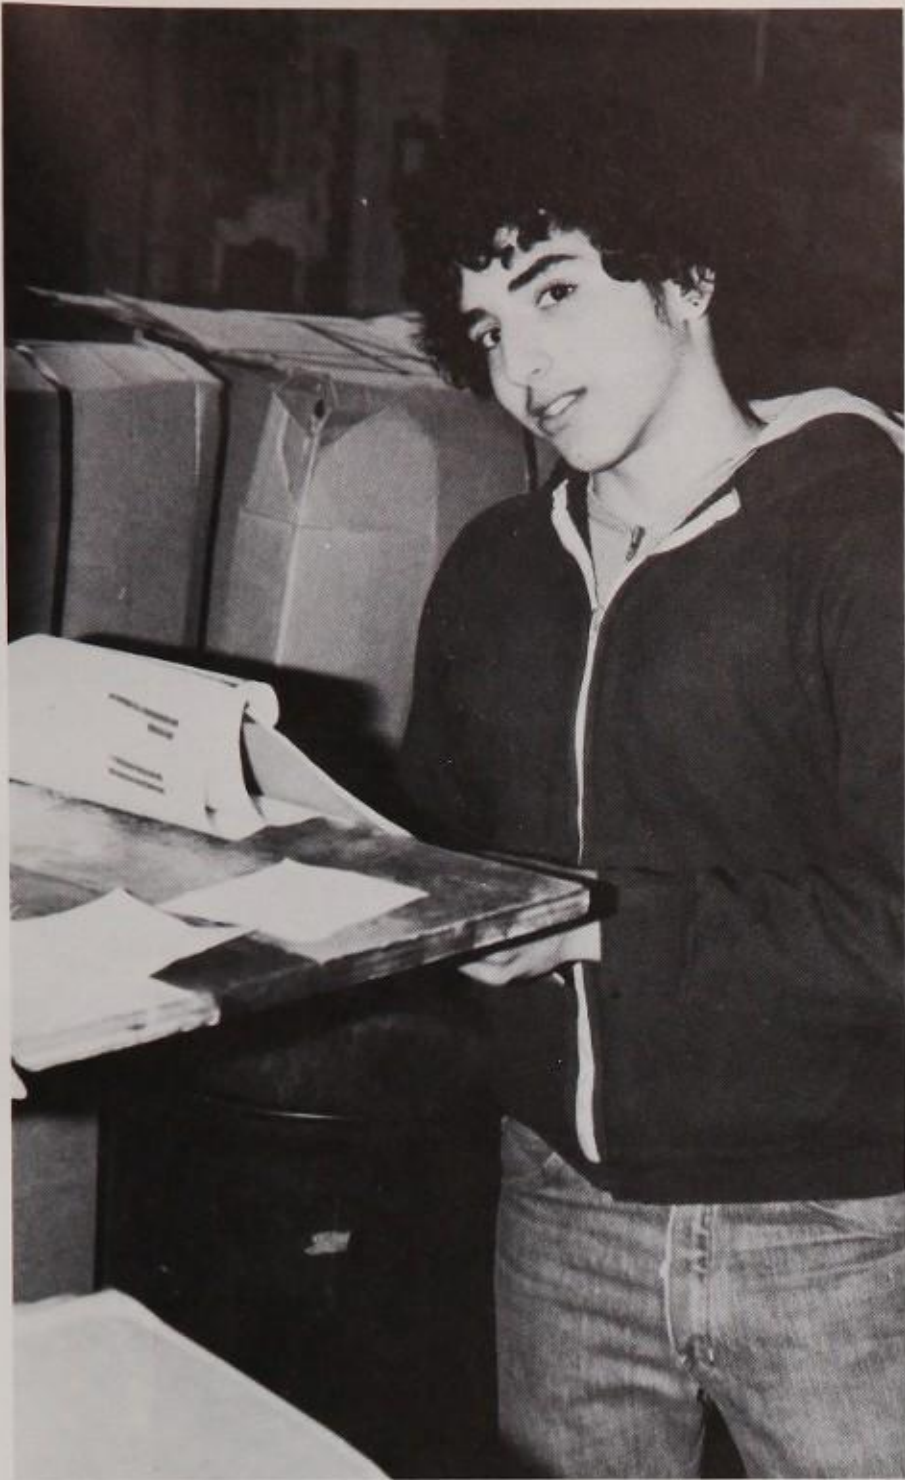

Stella Rogacki at Haband's.

These ambitious students attend school and hold paid positions, too. The program is arranged through Mr. Paul Burghardt, Mr. Art Fairweather, and Mr. Jake Faase. The teachers contact the prospective employers and plan time and student schedules which allow for a half day at school and a half day at a place of business. The eager student enjoys the best of both worlds; he earns and learns at the same time.

Cate Luraschi at the Foodtown meat department

James Manzella "on the job" at Silk City Fiber.

Debbie Dean at Tiny Tot Nursery.

Leza Snow at Meyer Bros., Paterson, N.J.

James Petrucelli, a paper tiger?

Mr. Legg chooses one from column A and two from column B.

Mr. Robert Legg and members of his family at school just prior to the Christmas recess. Mr. Legg plans a full Chinese dinner for some of his students and staff members in the spirit of the Chinese New Year. The event is so well received by all that he then plans a trip to New York where a full-scale celebration takes place. Many brightly colored banners are carried by the Chinese to ward off any evil influences so that the New Year can begin on a healthy note. The large gong, shown lower right, is struck to provide a warning to unfriendly spirits. Mr. Legg, a member of the history department, brings authentic touches of oriental culture to his students through the good and popular Chinese cuisine and the extraordinary parade.

Mr. Legg and family enjoy the oriental fare.

Happy New Year, Chinese style. Gung he syin syi.
